22 June 2010 – Hotel Re! is proud to be the Official Hotel of the Jewel of Muscat, whose crew, the media and the officials will be staying with us from 28 June 2010 to 9 July 2010. Media Conferences of the Jewel of Muscat will also be conducted at Hotel Re!

About the Jewel of Muscat:

The governments of Oman and Singapore have launched the Jewel of Muscat project. This project covers the construction and voyage of a 9th-century Arab sailing ship.

A team of experts has built the Jewel of Muscat in a specially constructed shipyard on the beach in Qantab in Oman. They have used a range of historical sources, including archaeological findings from the 'Belitung Wreck', including the Tang Treasure, which was discovered in 1998 in Indonesia waters.

The ship has been constructed with the methods available to 9th-century Arab craftsmen. The planks have been sewn together using coconut fibre, and the square sails will be made of plaited palm leaves.

During its voyage, the team will use 9th-century navigation techniques.

The project is being funded and supported by the governments of Oman and Singapore.

The Jewel of Muscat is a gift from the Sultanate of Oman to the government and people of Singapore.

The voyage began in February 2010, with the Jewel of Muscat arriving in Singapore on 3 July 2010.

Every stage of the Jewel of Muscat's construction and voyage will be covered on the Jewel of Muscat's official website. The site contains videos, photographs and interactive features. The project will also be filmed for a television documentary.
